

Dress for Success

Suits

- Choose a two-piece matching suit.
- Stick to conservative colors like navy, charcoal or light gray.
- Iron, press or steam pants so they are wrinkle free.
- Dress/skirt length should be no shorter than 2-3" above knee.
- If needed, have suit tailored or hemmed to fit correctly.

Dress Shirts and Blouses

- Wear a long-sleeved button down or straight collar shirt.
- Wear a tailored blouse, good quality knit sweater or shell under your jacket.
- White or light blue shirts are great colors for an interview.
- Avoid low-cut and see-through attire.

Shoes & Pantyhose

- Wear leather shoes in brown, black or navy.
- Closed-toed shoes are preferred.
- Socks should be long enough to not show any bare skin when you cross your legs or sit.
- Never wear gym socks for an interview.
- If wearing pantyhose, choose a neutral skin tone. Do not wear with open-toed shoes. Keep an extra pair with you in case of a "run."

Accessories

- Ties should be conservative with a solid or stripe pattern. Its length should stop at your pant belt buckle. Avoid a clip-on tie.
- Match your belt to your shoes.
- Bring a purse or briefcase, not both.
- Wear minimal jewelry; less is better.
- Keep necklace and earrings conservative and professional.
- If wearing makeup, subtle is key. Never appear overly made up.
